NEW YORK, N.Y.
APR 20
6 30 PM
1917
STA. F

C

2 CENTS

Jos. M. Freedman, Atty,
Lyceum Theatre Bldg.
Memphis Tenn.

Apr. 20-17.
Friday:—

My precious Sweetheart —

wasn't I the crazy cat to write as I did yesterday!— but do you know, I was so worried — and wrote on the spur of the moment. The bill hasn't even passed the Senate yet — and here I am fretting — but I am pretty sure it will. How did your case turn out? Did you get as much as you expected? Expect that I'll know to-morrow.

The parade that Senate spirit of '76. It sure was beautiful and wonderful they tell me.

Am sending you a clipping from a morning paper about Bellerue's loyalty of her country. It sure is a joke. It had do you suppose they did? A moving picture man was down - and of course produced the most spectacular thing for the screen you can imagine. They had the doctors at the plow breaking up the earth. Of course it looks and makes a wonderful impression when seen on the

You about only took place yesterday. It was an immense one - 60,000 paraders - and took about 5 hours to pass. I was not able to go - as we were too busy in the dispensary - and gosh! was I sorry! Bellevue nurses were there and they sure did look pretty. The parade was held in commemoration of the anniversary of Paul's Revere's ride and also of the battle of Lexington and they called it "Wake up, America". Aeroplanes were flying about and dropping down pamphlets urging the screen and the poor mortals that see it be-!

here it. "Say - you'd" we are even more particular than that - didn't we break up our big back yard - almost as big as Bellerue's, yet the motion picture men are not running around crazy to snap pictures of it!
By heck! I hope our gol darn crap is big!

Was there about 4.30 yesterday afternoon and expect to go home about the same time to-night - if not earlier.
I topped off at the big dept. stores yesterday
in B'klyn and looked at and admired the pretty things. With a big kiss to my precious secretary Joe, I close with love Frances.